THE MAIN SHEET

Shrimp boats at the Fish Camp dock, Port Royal. YCHHI members were able to get out on the water in July visiting both Daufuskie Island and Port Royal. The Tailgate Lobster Bake was also a big success. Photos in this issue.

Commodore's Comments

As the pandemic continues, so will the club shut down. At the last Board meeting it was voted to continue our present course through August. Unfortunately, that will probably be the course for several more months. It was felt that August was too hot to have another outside event but we can anticipate an oyster roast on September 11. There is a great deal of misery out there, so compared to many, the Club's share is reasonably small.

On another note, the sailing program has not done much in the last year. There is no dock space available for us at the Marina. An alternative is to put a floating dock in Broad Creek and ferry out there for access to the small racing sail boats. We decided last year that a fund raiser for capital projects taking place in July/August should be one of the avenues to pursue. There are several people working on this now and it could be a quick way to rejuvenate the program. More to come.

We are setting up a marketing committee chaired by past commodore Mary Ryan. Thanks to Jean Hillenbrand an extensive marketing plan was developed by USCB students and given to us. The committee will look into implementing this. This will mean more members and hopefully more revenue for the club.

Looking forward to a vaccine. Al

July Lobster Bake

Sonny Compher exchanged burgees with Commodore Gary Kanner of the Mathews Yacht Club, Mathews, VA. on a visit there last week.

Cruise to Fish Camp, Port Royal

There were 14 folks on three boats and two cars. Special person joining was Kathe Golden's son, Jonathan! Fun outing, good food, social distancing, and masks.

If you take photos of YCHHI events and would like to see them in the Main Sheet, please email to

Harbour Town and Calibogue Cup Regattas

The Regatta Committee wants to inform the Club Membership that regretfully we are not holding the Harbour Town and Calibogue Cup Regattas this year. The decision was made because of the spike of Covid-19, club resources, and in an abundance of caution.

Hopefully the club will be in a position to hold a regatta next year.

Call for Volunteers

"Tide and time wait for no man" and both seem relentless on small boats and docks. Volunteers are needed to boost participation in the Flying Scots program.

The crew that worked on the YCHHI red Scot 10 years ago. It needs the same TLC again!

The launch of the floating dock YCHHI members built at least 20 years ago. This dock was loaned to the sailing center and was destroyed by Hurricane Irma. The floats were recovered and are now in the YCHHI yard. We need to get it rebuilt too.

Introducing...

Dick West

Dick lives in Lakewood, Ohio and purchased a 2nd home in Sea Pines this spring. An avid boater, Dick is a member of the Cleveland Yacht Club (where he docks his 22' Boston Whaler) and the Catawba Island Club (where he docks his 1967 all wood - 54' Matthews). Dick completed the "Great Loop" aboard the Matthews in 2012. Dick is the owner of a specialty silicone research and aerosol manufacturing firm. He plans to spend time on Hilton Head with his family and friends and is looking forward to meeting new friends at the YCHHI.

Mark and Sue Cleveland

Mark and Sue Cleveland moved to HHI in 2019 after vacationing here for 30+ years. Sue is a Pittsburgh native, diehard Steeler fan, and is the Recreation Manager at Marriott Vacation Club Sea Pines. Mark is originally from Arkansas and is an Environmental Analyst for PNC Bank. They have 2 sons who live in Austin, TX and Scottsdale, AZ. Their chocolate lab, Tater, loves swimming in the ocean and is happy to be a full time island resident!

They look forward to getting to know the yacht club community!

Due to COVID-19 many Yacht Club functions have canceled all of their events until such time as we can get together as a group. Prayers & best wishes for good health for all!

Wine Club

Hello Wine Club Members. If you are like me, you are ready for our Friday night dinners to resume and along with those our Wine Club Meetings. And again, if you are like me, you have been making a dent in your wine inventory. So to help you replenish those disappearing bottles the Kroger at Shelter Cove is having a wine sale this Thursday thru Sunday, July 30-Aug 2. You receive 20% off 12 bottles or more. Mix and/or match. You must buy at least 12. Say you purchase 17; they will all qualify for the discount. The magic number is 12, any number after the first 12 also qualifies for the discount. If you haven't been to this Kroger in awhile they have expanded their wine department and it is very well stocked. The gentleman in charge is Barry Wilson. If you are looking for a wine that is not on the shelf he will order it for you (one bottle or more) if one of his vendors carries it. If ordered, then picked up during the sale they will be discounted also if you are purchasing a total of at least 12.

You can email him: (barry.wilson@stores.kroger.com) He will also be in the store this Friday and Saturday. Mornings are the best time to catch him there.

And for all the red wine drinkers out there. I picked up a good tip from one of my wine sites. It's for those of us who do not have temperature controlled wine cellars. Place your bottle in the refrigerator in the morning of the day you plan to drink it. Then take it out an hour before you are going to open it. It will taste much better than if at room temperature. If you don't finish the bottle, use a vacuum pump if you have one, re-cork then place it back in the refrigerator and again take it out an hour before you plan to drink it.

Cheers! Babs Erny

The Hilton Head Heroes' program reactivated on June 21 with all four visiting families signing up to go on the Yacht Club sponsored private boat cruises. Unfortunately, the visiting family from last week had to cancel at the last moment due to an issue with the Hero Child. Skipper Ernie Ahr has stepped up and has taken this week's family out for their cruise. Thank you Ernie and Terri. Cecil and Frances Viverette have asked to be put into the rotation for taking a family. If any other skipper would like to volunteer or wants more information on the Hilton Head Hero Program, just contact Dave Shkor with any questions. Special thanks and recognition to the NautiLadies for their continued financial support for the Hero Skippers.
